ATTORNEY AT LAW. DISEASE been done. Often con Juckson. Tennesett. Will, practice in all the Courts of Madison and surrounding counties, and in the Supreme and Pederal Courts of Temessee. All evil claims absenced to the fiver is generally the organ meet in

Lift Office Second door South Kast Cor- Price 11.00 per package; wat by Mail, postuse pand, $1.25; prepared, ready for use, in feather, $1.50; 30 accounting only by Bullock & Bullock, A200 .B Nedb. Ha. BEREAD W. N. A file now occupying those observed official over Collins China Store, In Amberson. uni Taylor's block, corner of Market and laPayette streets. Entrance of the West moles talling story on LaPayette street

JNO. L. H. & H. W. TOMAN Recreation ATTORNEYS AND Councellors at Law,

North East Cor. Public Squares Second Story. LACKSON TENNESSEE. Will produce in the various Courts of Madison and the adjoining Courts, and also in the Supremy and Federal Courts of West Tennessee. Alicohasting entereded to the whole incleanable or limiters controlled by whose incleanable or limiters controlled to the whole incleanable or limiters are approximate.

ROBE, W. HATERS. Haynes & Bond, ATTORNEYS AT LAW Indee Brown's old Office, Main St., Jackson, Tennessee. Court of Jack 200, the Septem Court of Jack 200, the Chancers of the Chancers of the Chancers and the whiteless Magnetals Court of Mathon country, Tenn., and the where, when specially retained. Our 20 til

SPRINGER CARPTHEES. E. S. MALCORY WINES. Caruthers & Mallory. ATTORNEYS AT LAW

COLLECTING AGENTS.

JACKSON, TENN.

Tit toffice in Luckey's new building.

DRS. ARRINGTON & HAYS.

EDENTAL CARRE DR. WM. B. SPENCER Surgeon Deutist Office over d. W. Grass & Sense corner

JACKSON, TENNESSEE

Bor. N. Be. Munbhard, Having located in JACKSON, TENNESSEE, there his services to the citizens of Jackson and whefatty, sepectal attention given to decreases of women and children.

Dr. H. M. HERRON, Young & Frick,

Jackson, Tennessee, Architects and Superintendents. FRENDERS his professional services to No. 66 North Fifth St., The city and surrounding country.

He is a regular graduate of Jedisson Modcal College, of Philadelphia, and has an

Dr. R. R. DASHIELL

Henderson Masonic

Male and Female Institute. Three teachers in the Collecture Detect

G. M. SAVAGE ma 29-am. Renterson, 219., Tenn. Educate Your Daughters. NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. eraged eight hundred and somery-re

J. M. REAVES.

Manufacturer or Tia. Copper & Sheet-iron Work and Chattanooga B.11, Line.

And Desterni stoyes

STAMPED

HIG AND TRIBUN

VOL. XXVIII.

The state of the s

四十八年 四本 田口

WE IN THE TAME OF LAND.

BEGOGERE BEEFER

nating with tax. The head is troubled with

J. H. ZERLIN & CO.

Mincoln, fans, and Philindelphia.

BE E NEATH BE CORINGO.

AND

PLEASURE.

D. H. KING. Proprietor.

FAVORITE RESORS

is fixed up with superch tyle, and so so not the test of Billiant Talons and appear King's Bar.

to opicion of the this Property and That Property

Call kinds, and the most, Inclidings tone:

Lighted up with Gas.

8 NG S BLOCK OF BUILDINGS, on

S. H. Brazelton,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Jackson, Tenn.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

French and English

CHINA. GLASSWARE,

AND CIGARS

LEGISORS

Wer also by all Druggioles

nel pain in the si

thich ought to have

JACKSON, TENNESSEE, SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1872.

THE NIGHTS.

Whilst the sweet winds load her

(of the commercialists

Has a small of light,

And she with on a supplier threne,

With garlands of oder,

But the autumn night-

Gas a playeing sight,

Ami a step both strong and fivel

And volue for wonder.

Like the weath of the thursles,

- Barry Cornwall

on by shoulds to the stormy you.

Weather Bhymes.

the cock goes crowing to bed

He's sure to use with a wet head.

weather.

out the baid to the rose o'erblews.

WHIG AND TRIBUNE

TUBLISHED RVERY SATURPAY. D. M. WEIDON J. T. HICKS: Under the Firm and Style of W.W.GATES&CO.

TRANSFER SUBSCRIPTION. Two dollars ADVERTORING RATES. - Advertisemen red for a less term than three months be charged $150 per square of cight s, or less, for the first insertion, and $1

ADVERTISING RATES.

820 00 $30.00 Where advertisements are ordered to be my self. musually shaplayed they will be charged

GAZETTED.

The type-editor stands before his case, The gas learns low, and the night is dec and over the stappering chimney stacks, Darkness and shadows creep. And the city is lost in sleep.

With dim old eyes and a weary brain: and he sings a cadence solenia and low. To the best of the bitter rain. On ratting consumpt and pane.

Tremble the raffers, root and floors, As he fingers the type (in his desolat And he hears the music faintly berne. From the theater over the way, At some strange old tragedy play.

The old man sings, and trembles the floors With the bellowing engine down below, And the crush of the whirling axis-burs, And thunders that from them grow, E-being to and fro.

As he fingers the fyre (in his desolate way). He sets them up with a heavy lead, And a marge of black energies his work The name of a man just dead: A soul in the lattic sped.

Ann he sighs as he thinks, this man so gray Winking and thinking before his case, How, out in this dark and desolate night. Some form of womanly grace Is weeping upon her face.

At the the theater over the way. And finished the tragedy play.

and the type-setter wipes his dim old eyes; The types no more his fingers move; And he smiles that, while setting the name The angels, fu tender love, Were setting it up above.

MY HUSBAND'S SECOND WIFE. My husband same tenderly to my

"Are you going out this evening, The Best Stock in West Team.

Consider a constant of the does of the constant of the constant > that I did not see the haggard downoblige me. I am tired of being put off with such excuses." DESIGNS, Plans and Specifications, with his head in his hand on the table before him before him. "Oh, come, Gerald," I urged petame; it was scarce common place ning our people by the law of kind-nough for that. They were talk-ness. In brief, on all the living 1two or three business-like sucs of the hour, Mr. Greeley oking men, in the hall without, the South are in perfect accord. and I could catch now and then, a platform and his letter embrace all "Fine, enterprising young fellow."

"Great pity." "Totally ruined—so Bees & McMorken say." "Reckwildly. "Why cannot you leave me dit is I, Gerald, your Madelineyour own little wife. And I caught from his hand the sistol he was trying to conceal in his family, content to let John do the breast-its mate lay on the hearth under the mantel-and flung it out "Gerald, would you have left "I would have escaped," he cried. sisters brought up allte. When the still half delirious, to all appear- boys were tousting their feet before ances, "debt, misery, disgrace-her the are, watching the cut with their reproaches. I would have escaped half-open eyes, or the more wide-"His head fell, like that of a wea- trick, John was sented quictly to cash subsequent tasertion.

ried child, on my shoulder. I drew his nook by the nim candic-light him gently to a sofa and soothed reading some book or paper in him with a thousand murmored which he is wholly absorbed words, a thousand nute caresses; for boys laughed at him for digning had it not been all my fault?

And through all the long weeks about the bouse, but somehow it af fear that followed, I nursed him came about that John's was the with unwavering care and devotion. governing mind of the househ had but one thought-one desire If father thought of ditching a let, -to redeem myself in his estima. he asked John what he thought of it, very like a magnificent baby house. Gerald sat in a cushioned easy chair ne, working busily at my needle. "What an industrious falry it is," he said, smiling sadly.

"Who would have thought you improve them. would make so notable a house-I laughed gleefully; I had all a general rule are the presiding genichild's delight in being praised. uses of the sphere in which they "Are you going to Mrs. Deinney's move. It is a good thing for a young "No; what do I care for croquett will of his neighbors. Their confroquett party?" he asked.

"Madeline, I want you to suswer ne one question. "What have you done with your

"I sold them long ago. They paid several heavy bills, beside settling half a year's rent here." "But, Madeline, you were so proud of your diamonds. "I was once, but now, they would be the bitterest reproach my eyes at the Greeley rathication meeting

"That's right lit And grow the shadows dusky and gray, said my husband, half jokingly, And the storm is hushed and the music's "talk her down. She has forgotten that our past is dead and gone, and that we have turned over a new > eline, do you know how I feel, sometimes when I look at you?" Well, I feel like a widower who has married again." My heart gave one little superstipage in the book of existence. Mad-again, Gerald?" Yes, I can remember my first My friend said I, 'Horace is our wife—a brilliant, thoughtless child star in the East. The wise men that the star in the East. The wise men that the star in the East. The wise men that the star in the East. The wise men that star in the East. The wise men that the star in the East. The wise men that the star in the East. The wise men that the star in the East. The wise men that the wi "Of course I am."

I looked complacently at my dress of pink crape, dew-dropped over with crystal, and trails of pink aza line has vanished away into the past. Somewhere, she has gone away to remarked: "Pears to me that' return to me no more, and in her but don't seem natural at all. stead I behold my second wife—a niel Voorhee's' talk suited me as that caught up its folds here thoughtful, tender woman, whose first, but somehow Daniel pears and there. A diamond bracelet ca- watchful love surrounds me like an have weakened, as' I guess have the fair reflection in the mirror.

"Come, Gerald, make haste! — with my cheek upon his arm, and my eyes looking into his.

"And which do you love best, never witnessed a more complete or control of the control of the complete or control of the control of Where were my wifely instincts, Gerald—the first or second wife?"
hat I did not see the hargard down. "I think the trials and vicissitudes ast look in his features-the fever- through which we have passed are "I can't go to-night Madaline; I welcome indeed, since they have brought me as their harvest fruit, am not well enough."

"You are never 'well enough' to wife." That was what Gerald answered

If with such excuses." me—the sweetest words that ever fell upon my ear. Reasons for Supporting Mr. Gree

I could not be mistaken in the of the South, and in favor of winbecause of this agreement in princi-

John was the reading member of inrge household. The rest jugget on at the common pace of a farmer a eading and learning for them a It is hard to tell how he struck out this line by himself, but it is not uncommon to see very marked differences in the tastes of brothers and awake teaching the dog some new tion-to prove to him that I was and where it had better be dug. something more and higher than the John could give a reason for his Mother never undertook any new | where are we now? almost invariably regretted it. The tives for pursuing it. It was a pleturesque little villa of asking his judgment on matters not far out of Pittsburgh, furnished of importance, and as he grew up to manbood he was universally respectin the garden, just where he could him home of evenings, the time, if preserved some of the old English a stolid stare, and then, spreading glance through the open window at ever, when boys are led away by evil rhymes, and prophesies of coming compasions; his reading, joined weather. Some of them are curi- the perusal of a newspaper. I was with industrious habits, had made out, if not correct. Some of them tempted to crawl up behind and his him an intelligent, practical work- are so often found true as to be "Well, you see I like it. It is a man, prepared to take a much high-great deal better than those sonatus or stand than his brothers who had when the glow worm lights her lamp, the same advantages, but failed to Knowledge is power, and these who are the most cultivated as a parties? I'm going to finish your dence in his judgment will serve shirts, and you will road about to him many a good turn in life.

Greeley Vs. Grant.

The Courier-Journal says: At the Grant ratification meeting in New York in 1868 there were four speakers; at the Greeley ratification meeting in 1872 there were nearer forty. At the Grant ratification tuceting 1868 the hall of the Cooper institute was not full, and there feathery, betoken fine weather. were no speakers at outside stands; could meet. Oh, Gerald, had I been in 1872 the hall was densely packed, less vain, and thoughtless and ex- there were four outside stands, and fact remains to be mentioned. Of the four speakers at the Grant rati-Administration; the other three are ontspoken and enthusiastic suppor-ters of Greeley and Brown.-[N. Y.

Indiana.

An Indiana letter to the Cincinnati

Tribune.

tions jump.

"Like a widower who has married old Democrat the other day, and he as it shows that the rain clouds are our country friends with reference aid. 'Aud how is Horace Greeley?' passing away. ... lay."

Twas kneeling at his side, now, Horace Greeley melts away, one by more quiet revolution in public of all classes of invalids; and yet, where there is one woman alling duce men here, always wide awake, ----

Belief in God au lustinct.

Some who have called themselves have a complex origin.

have a complex origin.

have a complex origin.

have a complex origin.

It comes from too much work and our market. The fruit grower should remember that the produce bilosophers have said that society of man being that of seclusion and stimulus and from too little brain of one acre, well cultivated in fruit collitude, and social existence being stimulus, from a lonely life with will pay his dry goods bill for a device to avoid certain inconvenindicate list.

"Oh, some, Gerald," I urged pet deathy, "He is a say ward, for up the death," "He is a say ward, for up the showly he list bear pet the say." "He may be some a suitable," "He was your "Deet great death as the same and the limited and physical." The hought perhaps you would be showly and the format and house of the ward and the word of the word, and the mental and physical.

"Hought perhaps you would be showly and the format and the word of the word and the word of t iences and secure certain comforts. answered; from an excess of dissi- care of and offered to the country This theory, if it ever found scrious | pation and unhealthy habits, both | merchant, he will accept it as readi-and less reseing novels and embroid- are fretted thin in one place. Those bring his rooms darkened with green women need contact with the fresh blinds of there is any one thing and invigorating influences of na-more beautiful than another in a ture, contact with people, amuse-garden of flowers, that thing is a ments, diversion, change, which beautiful girt with a san beanet on they never get until they break Christ." her head so wate and capacious that

How to Recognize the Railroad

corge C. Harding, in the Circumsti Con tells the story of the railroad hogand strains his small wit to hold loston gloss, an enameled shirt, and Caustic well Applied. the same way about the Democracy sir," but I found one "that was not crawled through grass and opinion always, and it was a rare ing majority of the people look with thing to go against his judgment, ing majority of the people look with how many times he would repro-favor on Mr. Greeley, but they are duce the falsehood. The coach was until our baskets were full. This Well, the March winds had how!—

Sheriffs, Cherks and Rangers, who send is their patronage will receive the Whigh it patronage will receive the Whigh a receive the Whigh it patronage will receive the winds had how!—

Well, the March winds had how!— white patronage will receive the winds had how!— white patronage will receive they occupy; one will be winded to be without the greatest mistake rather full, and would you believe it, was the time to have gone; but the ever made by sane men. The World the winds had how!— trout were large and bit so readily may rest assured that the "blind, under the winds had how!— white patronage will receive they occupy; one with the winds had how!— white patronage will receive they occupy; one will be without consultation to the greatest mistake rather full, and would you believe it, was the time to have gone; but the ever made by sane men. The World that we decided to string and hide the winds had how!—

The world receive the properties and without consultation to the greatest mistake rather full, and would you believe it, was the time to have gone; but the ever made by sane men. The world receive the winds had how!—

The world receive the winds had how! as their patronage will receive the wing without charge.

April rain-drops were dried on the boy, but no one ever thought of ask bough and spray; and now the application for Compress $20 for Co The old settlers of New England, to the inquiry of a mild-mannered ed. His taste for reading had kept says the New York Independent, and timid questioner, he replied by > in his car, "You're an awful liar."

> But I had my revenge. A big, red-faced two-hundred-pounder, in a When the glow worm lights her lamp, dirty linen coat, came in at a way station. He was sweaty to a fearful degree. His feet smelt like valer ante of ammonia and rotten fish. When black snaffs do cross your path Thou bio, k seemle much moissure hat!

When the peacock foully hawls, soon we'll have both rain and squali When you see the gossesser fixing, Then be sure the air is dying. seat is," began the hog. "Wel A rosy sunset prosages good I guess I'll take it till the other fel weather, a ruddy sunress had low comes," returned the swee weather, e plumped, partially crushing the A bright yellow sky in the evenog in his descent. The last owned and began to bluster, b The latte ing indicates wind; a pale yellow sky in the evening indicates wet. A neutral gray color at evening is out of him with a threat to swallow a favorable sign; in the morning an him whole—to chaw him up and spit breakfast, then we will come to see Where did you got them?" infavorable one,

The clouds, if soft, undefined and dose of salts, and to make variou

Dried Fruit.

erly cut and prepare their fruit for

"For the pardon of my sins."

approaching the observer.

Finally he crawled out and stood up If the moon shows like a silver shield, Be not afraid to resp your field; But if she rises haloed round, was vacated. Soon will we tread on deluged ground. A rainbow at night is the sailer's delight, This adage may also be a good

Nervous Women. The little demon for which nervousness stands is among the worst | market. In the years past dried onemies that afflict women. It is in-tangible, mysterious, not to be de-erable revenue, and its importance scribed or understood by any but as a produce of our country is be the poor victim herself, and imper-coming greater every year, and fectly by her. It has as many hues likely the approaching season to b as the chameleon, as many forms as more extensive as a business than Proteus, and without a local habita-Nervousness is a thing nobody ded, from different sections of the pities, because pity is vulgar; and State, is that the peach crop especi sks for pallor of countenance and ally is much larger this year than weakness of frame before it shows for any previous year since the war. Nervous women are the and it is natural to suppose that forfrom any other cause, there are have hitherto paid good prices fo twenty ailing from nervousness. A fruit for shipment north,

thing so complex must necessarily | doubtless now ready to take hold of too little work; from too much brain | should remember that the produccravings of the soul that are never year, and if the fruit is only taken

The hours seemed to glide away, shod with roses, and winged with music and perfume; and, it was not until wearied with dancing, is sought a momentary refuge in the ball lighted tea-room, that I heard words awakening me, as it were, from a dream.

"Gerald Gien!"

Leuid not be unistaken in the Leuid not be

Modern women in education are immensely ahead of their grand-

Augling for a Dorg.

We were traveling ground we had no right on. The only excuse was like that of a military necessity it "This seat is taken, sir." All of was far better fishing through the the Commercial readers who have farms where the trout had been pretraveled to any considerable extent | served, than in the open lots where are familiar with this formula. It all could fish. It was early in the morning. the small-souled, mean, selfish brute had risen at three and ridden to who pays grudgingly for one seat, miles and struck the creek as the trout were ready for breakfast. two. This particular hog were a Looking carefully for a sheltere plug hat shiny with the genuine place to hitch our horses, we slyl crept on behind fence, etc., till w losely cropped iron-gray beard. I reached a part of the stream me know his kind. He is an eminently generally fished. A farm hous espectable beast, who always pays stood not a quarter of a mile away The Lonisville Conrice-Journal est in Sunday Schools, administrates ing lightly from a stove pipe; saw in the lightly from a stove pipe; saw in th his deceased brother's children out man and two boys come to feed the of their patrimony, is the president | cattle; saw a woman busy about the Everybody has heard of the dis-sentient juror who swore he "never biographical sketches published in dering about the yard. met eleven such d-d obstinate fools | the newspapers when he finally kick | If we ever fished close it was then in his life before." The New York the bucket. I knew the hog lied Not a whisper to disturd the birds World expresses itself very much in when he said "this seat is taken, or the owners of the land. We For the behavior of the research to the space constitutes a square, mere butterily I had hitherto shown opinion always, and if was a rare when it says that "a bland, unreflects taken, sir," and watched him to see behind clumps of alders lifting large > and a look to the rear of the car to bouse, the mon, the boys and the indicate that the holder of the seat | dog. Suddenly there was a rushing had gone for a drink of water, and leg through an oat field as if a mad would be back soon. Another time, but was coming. We looked to bull was coming. We looked tord the house, we saw the farmer d his two boys sitting on a fence, s woman at the door and, the aimself a little wider, he resumes g bounding toward us. We saw all-we had been discovered! The well-trained dog had been sent to hant us out, and, as the matter appeared, it was safe to bet he was doing that thing lively. To ant run the deg was not to be contained a bunch of field violets his tribe. It was usual for the Governor osc. He deired a fence and came scarcely as white as her little hand. for us just as we reached a tree, and | As she entered the grove she unfasand his breath was a hot, stinking by great activity took a front scant sirocco, based on bad whisky and on a limb above his reach. Here garden, the sound of merry voices the Governor, John the governor's enions. This fiery and fragrant beginning was a precious go! A vicione dog greeted her hearing, and Master son, was but a boy, and on one of was a precious go! A vicions dog under the tree and the farmer and in the seat that was taken. "This two big boys ready to move down Paul Crosbie, the pale, grave organ- a scence which I will give in Trum upon our works. It was fight, foot- list of the village church, soon reach- bull's own words.

The farmer yelled to his dog.— Watch him, Tige. Tige proposed to do that little cated himself under the true. him out to pitch him out of the youl If you are in a herry, howwindow-to go through him like a ever, you can go now! Watch him, dose of salts, and to make various of him in case he other dispositions of him in case he other dispositions of him in case he didn't simmer down. Our porcine friend simmer down. Our porcine travagant"—

I checked myself, and a robin singing in the perfuned blossoms of an apple-tree, took up the dropped an apple travagant.

The whole square between Clinton the whole square between Clinton and the Bible House, was a subdued tone, for no one knew, as going. He spat quarte of sound a subdued tone, for no one knew, as going. He spat quarte of sound that the menting the whole square between Clinton and the residue the should become again to running the whole square between Clinton and the residue the square between Clinton and the residue the should been the square between Clinton and the residue the square between Clinton and the residue the should been the square between Clinton and the residue the square property and residue the square between Clinton and the residue the square between Clinton and the residue the square between Clinton and the residue the square square between Clinton and the residue the square square between Clinton and the residue the square sq bacco juice across him out of the window, spattering his shirt-front, and the saving ordinance of those in the meadow, a favorite walk of his to have been! John, n If at sun rising or setting the between his boots, on his valise, trouble. We had a stout line in our when he came to call upon her. fication meeting in 1868 barely one is a Grant man in 1872, and he holds a small office in Virginia under the small of the small o a sure sign of storms and gales of plug of navy. The hog perspired trout. And as good luck would wind. trout. And as good luck would have it we had a nice piece of boiled corn beef in our other pocket.

We called the dog pet names, but he wasn't on it. Then we tried to leave the manufacture of the wasn't on it. Then we tried to leave the wasn't on it. Then we for forty miles, until another seat > reason to believe that a rich harvest look beaming from his countenance, swer me at the rehearsal to-morrow friend, Calvin Goddard, Esq. 1 Then he pulled gently on the line!

>
> Then he pulled gently on the line!
>
> Claribel like a half frighted bird his monidering remains repeated to it was fast! Tige yanked and pulled but it was of no use!
>
> Claribel like a half frighted bird his monidering remains repeated to investigate the inestimable lesson. not any!

We quickly slid down the tree ise to be early at the choir-meeting, almost blistering our back doing it she bid farewell to her friends, Mashe bid farewen to ber itself the results there selzed our pool and went thence bel and Mr. Crosbie, who slowly shores, clearing and sweep our ports; wended their way toward their the journests, which results therewended their way toward their the journests, which results the commendating spot in time to see the sturdy yeoman move forth.

We found our string of fish and homes.

Her heart beat high when upon reaching her room she read I suit them, clear the mouths of rivers, and produce a pure and wholesome tearfully as she answered his declar-tree. We saw an anxious crowd

Will He Succeed.

What are you praying for?" I when the side reaches the coast I when the si fect in his expenditures, or a lack of ed since coming to Riverton, his "For the pardon of my sins."

But now, if your wife were offering you a cup of tea which she had repared for you, what would be our duty?"

"To take it from her, surely."

Fet in his expenditures, or a nace of the since coming to hiverion, his fitness to cope with men in the batthe for gold. When a country boy and a country boy
on his ears, and the words: "Yes, but, then, he is so cross, and ugly which is to acquire property; and he which is to ac "To take it from her, surely."
"To take it from her, surely."
"Do you think that God is offering you anything?"

which is to acquire property; and he will succeed just in proportion as he has been made to earn and save in his childhood.

and old!" distinctly enunciated, enchained for a moment his attention.

The words cut deeply into the who sat on the throne of Connaught, was the last king think the character and exploits man's heart. He passed on into his character and exploits ing you anything?"

"Oh. yes, sir: I think he is offering parden to all through Jesus If all the money he has had comes own house and entered his room.

If all the money he has had comes own house and entered his room.

The words cut deeply into the who sat on the throne of Celti man's heart. He passed on into his land. His character and ex own house and entered his room.

CLASP MANDS, OR! NORTH AND with startled eyes at the open book before him, a new revelation dashing over his mind, as with misty Chasp hands, the North and South gaze he saw a letter between the pages. The momentary spell over sense passed away, he resumed his playing, pale and with a tumult nous throbbing at his heart, and then when the hymn had censed, retired to the remotest sent, and with trembiling fingers opened

NOUTE:

Across the bloody chaste,

No move vilo, crafty sensese-

By demagogues contrived;

No more distranchised citizen

Words few and seidem fit,

Have gone to show that brevity

Give us a man of honest heart.

Of wit and worth and word;

Is mightier than the sword,"

The "Martyr's" meantie fall

With charity for all.?

Not too much of his own.

Shall our army be degraded

The ballot, not the bayonet,

By topers in their cups?

For borses and bull pups!

By Horace Greeley stand:

hen shall we be one peopl And a united land.

BY W. J. COBB, JR.

Shall offices be bartered

Should in this country rule.

Shall our laws be administered

To be a despot's tool?

the who will live to prove "the pen

One whem, in simple justice, shou

On one with maller toward none,

Whose apright course is known;

Who will of our foreign relations think

Is not the soul of wit.

Nor Southern men prosection We want no dummy President

Political missin.

Let truth and reason free you true

A little hand crept into he-a rembling, quivering little hand-imidly pressing his own, and expressing far more than words could have done, as Paul descended to the vestibule to face the congregation and receive their farowell adieus. The good old minister retreated a tep or two in surprise, as Paul repested permission to retain the potion of organist, and Makol Livgeton, sharp-witted and in mock tonishment, was profuse with exlamations of wonderment. That day Paul Crosbie walked ome with his betrothed wife, ownafseive which told him he was be bull, when a boy resided with his father, Governor Trumbull, at his residence in Lebanon, Connecticut, in the neighborhood of the Mohegans. The government of this tribe was hereditary in the family of the celebrated Uncas. Among the heirs to the chieftainship was an Indian named Zachary, who though a brave man and an excellent hunter, was as drunken and worthfess an Indian as could well be found. By the death of later veulug helrs, Zachary found him self entitled to the royal power. In this moment the better genius of Zachary assumed sway, and he ce lected scriously. How can such a drunken wretch as I am aspire to b chief of this noble tribe? What will my people say? How shall the shades of my glorious ancestors. girlish neanty. Her left hand held kept his resolution, her upgathered skirts, the other Zachary successit Zachary succeeded to the rule of conversation at the gate and a prom-

and female, move slowly, as if in no haste. We saw them look up the pocket, and wished the hours would the ocean, these powerful pulsations engaged about the dog. We came compared to the distribution of leagues; nor have they less mathematical regularity in the dimly-lighted church, surround-that which directs those planetary was turned upon every new comer,

In nine cases out of ten no man's Claribel Wayne found the members ife will be a success if he does not of the choir when she entered. She bear burdens in childhood. If the fondness or vanity of father or mother have kept him from hard labor; if hear-al with greater enthusiasm than another always helped him out of the end of a row; if, instead of taking his turn at pitching off, he mowing his turn at pitching off, he mowshe loved. The meeting was over cribable grandeur, flies through the

The late celebrated John Trum-

in Hartford, and it was customary for the mergan chief also to attend "One day the mischievious ed her side, greeting her with a cordiality which her aimability and at- thought struck me to try the sincertractiveness ever won from the most lity of 2the old man's temperance.

The family were seated at dinner, "You truant!" exclaimed Mabel and there was excellent home browtapping her playfully on the check, ed als on the table, I thus addressed "We have been looking for you over the chief: "Zachary, this beer is an hour. What beautiful flowers? very fine; will you not taste it? The old man dropped his knife, and leaned forward with a stern inten-Claribel looked up brightly. | leaned forward with a stern intenfields are fairly strewn with them. eyes sparkled with angry indigenordinance of those in | the meadow, a favorite walk of his | to have been! John, never ug

They looked at me and then Turned move down when he moved upl At last we trebled our bass line, fastenat we trebled our bass line, fastenat the trebled our bass line, fastenat the trebled our bass line, fastenat the trebled our bass line, fastenquietly, "and I do not know but tain with awe and respect. They We are induced at the present time to offer a few suggestions to our country friends with reference to the fruit crop. The season is about to open, and there is every reason to believe that a rich harvest.

pass more quickly towards the fol- of the waters are influenced by stars ing the organist whose anxious gaze that which directs those planets; bodies themselves. At a fixed hour the formidable masses of water, raised by an Invisible power, risc they precipitate themselves with resistless power, but only to stop companied by a thunder roar, which is heard for miles out at sea.

The Last King of Ireland.

Thrist."

"What is your duty then?"

"Ah, sir," he said with much feelng, "I ought to ascept it."

"An in the money he has had comes off planting a little patch in the spring, and selling its produce, after weary months of watching and toil, in the fall—or from killing woodupon his bed.

own house and entered his room.

The careless remarks had completed his misery. With an emotion of utter abandonment he flung himself rians, who have written in the in-GHIMA GLASSWARE

Intuitive worst of the grade of this agreement in principle and the state of the state o and Chattanooga R.R. file.

Centeral Short Rouse

Contral Ro West feminister to National States and participated in the participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the best Style, and all seeds at participated in the part ing to himself a power of happiness and the realization of a love almost acomprehensible in its fallness of strength and purity. Ветег Кешра и Жан.

For Union and for right; Rise from New England to the Guif, A Nation in its might. Down the well-worn path leading through the marshy meadow walked Claribel Wayne. She looked look down indignant upon such a beautiful with her long curls hang- successor? Can I succeed to the ing gracefully down her neck. Her great Uncas?-Aye-i will drink no light airy form well delineated by more!" And he solemnly resolved the loose flowing robe she wore and that henceforth he would drink her face radiant in its wealth of nothing stronger than water, and he tened a little gate which led into a and on his way to stop and dine with greeted her hearing, and Master Livingston, Chribel's brother and

The Tide.